To Whom It May Concern;

It is with great pleasure that my husband and I write this letter of recommendation for Denise Korrey of Korr Realty Group. We could not have asked for a better Realtor to guide us through the process.

Last year we found out that my husband's company would be relocating us from Rhode Island to the Orlando area. We were in Florida April 2013 and looking for a house. On the last day while we were packing I found a home we wanted to see. It so happened it was Denise's listing. How lucky are we to have called her that day! That house happened to be under contract by the time I called. However, Denise took the time to listen and evaluate what we wanted and needed, and we had not even met in person yet. She offered to be our eyes and ears while we returned to RI. She continued to email me listings and if we liked them she would go by-take pictures and give us her opinion on what the property actually looked like.

In May we found a property and Denise went to meet with the owner to compare that property to 2 other properties until I came myself. She knew, even without us actually seeing this house that this was the one!

I met Denise in person for the first time in May 2013. We had spoken so much on the phone and between the emails we exchanged, the listings she sent, it seemed like we had known each other forever. Denise is a true professional and has made this whole process stress-free while at the same time offering us her knowledge of the area.

Sincerely,

Michael and Janet Thomas
